

- . The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.
- . Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved our time at home, especiall during the dinner hour. The number of unwanted calls has been drastically reduced or virtually eliminated. I don't believe there is a need for a national law on this issue as it affects us here in Indiana